Every pine and fir and hemlock. Wore ermine too dear for an Earl; Agd the poorest twig on the elm tree Was rigged inch deep with pearl.

From sheds new-roofed with Carrara.

Came Chanticleer's muffled crow; The stiff rails were softened to swan's down-And still fluttered down the snow. I though of a mount in sweet Auburn. Where a little headstone stood; How the flakes were tolding it gently,

As did robins the babes in the wood. Up spoke our little Mahet, aying, "Father, who makes the snow?" And I told him of the good All-Father,

Who cares for us below. Again I looked at the snow-fall, And thought of the laden sky. That arched o'er our first great sorrow, When that mound was heaped so high.

I remember the gradual patience That fell from that cloud like snow; Flake by flake healing and hiding The scar of the deep-stabbed woe.

And again to the child I whispered, "The snow that visiteth all: Darling, the merciful Father Alone can make it fall !"

Then with eyes that saw not, I kissed her. And she kissing back, could not know I bat my kiss was given to her sister, Folding close under the deep'ning snow.

VARIETY OF FOOD NECESSARY .- It is in vegetable as in animal life; a mother crams her child exclusively with arrowroot-it becomes fat, it is true, but alas! it is rickety, and gets its teeth very slowly, and with difficulty. Mamma is ignorant, or never thinks that her offspring cannot make bone-or what is the same thing, phosphate of lime, the principal bulk of bone-out of starch. It does its best; and were it not for a little that does not proceed from organic causes beyond milk and bread, perhaps now and then a little meal and soup, it would have no from malformation or strict and diseases it is averred bones and teeth at all. Farmers keep poultry; and what is true of fowls is true of cabbage, a turnip, or an ear of wheat. It we mix with the food of fowls a sufficient quantity of egg-shells or chalk, which they cat greedily, they will lay many more eggs than before. A well-fed fowl is disposed to lay a vast number of eggs, but cannot do so with-out the materials for the shells, however nourishing in other respects her food may be. A fowl, with the best will in the world, not finding any lime in the soil, nor mortar from walls, nor calcarous mat- Dr., Morse's Invigorating Cordial, ter in her food, is incapacitated from laying any eggs at all. Let farmers lay such facts as these, which are matters of common observation, to heart, and transfer the analogy, as they may do, to the habits of plants, which are as truly alive, and answer as closely to every injudicious Chandes, and West Indies. treatment, as their own horse.

A NOVEL EXCUSE FOR SABBATH-BREAK-ING.—Some thirty years ago, the good people of Rhode Island were shocked and outraged on finding that a blacksmith was at work on the Sabbath. The sound of his hammer and the reverbations of gregation. Of course, he was "churched" he stated that one of the slavers, in getting ready to go to sea, had found herself deficient in the handcuffs, and he was obliged to work all of Sunday to supply her. The good shepherd of the flock decided that it was a work of necessity, justified by the Gospel, and Deacon Hart was excused.

DB. MORSH'S NVIGORATING CORDIAL A PHENOMENON IN MEDICINE. HEALTH RESTORED AND LIFE

DE. MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXIR OR CORDIAL.—At first the properties attributed to Prof. MORSE'S INVIGORATING BLIXIR OR CORDIAL were deemed fabulous. The public often deceived, sould not believe the simple and sublime truths announced by the discoverer.— But facts, undeniable facts attested by witnesses of the highest class and character, are now triumphing over all doubts. INCREDULITY IS OVER-THROWN by a mass of testimony which is perfectly

The Buxin remedies, in all cases, the deplorable evils arising from a misuse or abuse of the various organs which make up the rond ful machine called nan. It restores to full vigor every delicate funtien connected with that mysterious compound agency of matter and mind, necessary to the repreduction of human life. To persons of feeble museular frame, or deficient in vital power, it is recommended as the only means of communicating that energy which is necessary to the proper enjoyment of all the natural appetites, as well as the higher mental attributes. Its beneficial effects are not con-fined to either sex or to any age. The feeble girl, the siling wife, the listless, ernevated youth, the overworn man of business, the victim of nervous deression, the individual suffering from general debility, or from the weskness of a single organ, will all find immediate and permanent relief from the use of this incomparable renovator. To those who have a predisposition to paralysis it will prove a complete and unfailing safeguard against that terrible malady. There are many, perhaps, who have so trifled with their constitutions, that they think themselves beyond the reach of medicine. Let not even these despair. The Elixir deals with disease as it exists, without reference to causes, and will not only remove the disorder itself, but

REBUILD THE BROKEN CONSTITUTION. The derangements of the system, leading to neryous diseases, and the forms of nervous disease itself, are so numerous that it would require a column to enumerate the maladies for which this prepare ration is a specific. A few, however, may be enume rated, viz: neuralgia, tic dolereaux, heatache, incluient, paralysis, hysteria, palpitation of the heart, spi-nal affections, muscular debility, tremers, flatulence, a pricking sensation in the flesh, numbness, terpidity of the liver, mental depression, weakness of the will, indisposition to move, faintness after exercise, broken sleep an I terrifying dreams, inability to remain in one place or position, weakness of the procreative organs, sexual incompetency, metancholy, monomania, fluor albus, a nking at the stomach, fe male irregularities, a chronic tendency to miscarriege, emeciation, and all compleints growing out of a free indulgence of the passions, and all barrenness the reach of medicins. Whenever the organs to be seted upon are free

MORSE'S INVIGORATING ELIXER will replace weakness with strength, incapacity with efficiency, irregularity with uniform and natural so-tivity, and this not only without hazard of reaction, but with a happy effect on the general organization. Bear in mind that all maladies, wherever they begin, finish with the nervous system, and that the paralization of the nerves or motion and sensation i physical death. Bear in mind also, that for every kind of nervous disease the Elixer Cordial is the only reliable preparation known.

CAUTION. DR. MOREE'S INVIGORATING CORDIAL has been coun terfeited by some unprincipled persons. In future, all the genuine Cordial will have the proprietor's fac simils pasted over the cork of each bottle, and the following words blown in the giaes prove to be the best Medicines ever offered to the C.
